In the Social Realm

DEPARTMENT EDITORS: Miss Maud Hawley, Miss Vivian Greer.

Those present were Mesdames Goodyear, Payne, Stone, Simons, Stanley, Owens, Wilcox, Thornton, Jennings, Allen, Staples and Evans.

Mrs. R. M. Hedges entertained at her home near the normal school last Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Emma Myers of Cincinnati and Mrs. J. Davey McKinney, a recent Ashland bride. There were a large number of guests present from both city and country and a very enjoyable time was had. Light refreshments were served.

The Sunshine meeting of October 10 was well attended. A quilt was finished and will be sold to help the sunshine work. After finishing the work of the day, refreshments were served and a social hour spent in discussing and planning work for the future. All members are invited to attend the meeting of October 24 at 2 p. m. at the Temple of Truth.

Mrs. Lennart entertained a number of friends at the East Side Inn Friday evening in a very pleasant 500 party. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. George Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vaupel, Mrs. Benton Bowers, Mrs. J. K. Choate, Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Lennart. Like all functions at the East Side Inn, this was a very pleasant affair and one which will be remembered with appreciation by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. William Myer entertained a few friends Thursday evening at a 6 o'clock dinner in a style befitting that which they learned during their stay in "Old Virginia." Several dishes made from recipes gathered in this state were introduced, including Mr. Myers' own "make of" corn cream batter bread, for which he enjoys quite a distinction. Those present were Judge and Mrs. F. M. Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Shoudy, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tozer and Mrs. D. B. Grant.

Mrs. A. C. Briggs entertained at bridge Friday afternoon at her home on the Boulevard, three tables being filled, and a very pleasant afternoon spent. Mrs. J. R. Burnette proved herself the most successful player and was awarded the prize. Light refreshments were served. The following were guests: Mrs. E. E. Bagley, Mrs. J. R. Burnette, Mrs. M. F. Cyster, Mrs. R. F. Davis, Mrs. A. D. Graham, Mrs. A. E. Hall, Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. C. C. Page, Mrs. Ira Shoudy, Mrs. C. M. Summers.

One of the pleasantest dancing parties in this city for some time was that given Friday evening last by "Billie" Briggs and Miss Frances Hamlin. The Armory hall was crowded with merry-makers from 9 to 12 o'clock, about 40 couples tripping the light fantastic to the delightful strains poured forth by Pedersen's four-piece orchestra. Punch was served and the givers of the party proved themselves very adept at the art of entertaining and all present are urging them to "do it again."

The members of the Merry Matron's Club held their first meeting of the season with Mrs. W. W. Blalock, 111 B street, Friday afternoon. The meeting was more of a get-together affair to arrange for the future events of the season than a social meeting. This popular 500 organization is composed of the following ladies and meets every Friday afternoon: Mesdames C. H. Veghte, H. O. Frobach, J. H. Provost, P. S. Provost, W. H. Bartges, H. Barneburg, Clyde Cunningham, F. G. Swedenburg, Julia McQuilkin, Hum Pracht, A. W. Boslough, John A. May and W. W. Blalock. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Veghte.

The Girls' Sodality of Rosary church was entertained by Miss Kaiser at her home at 172 Alida street, Thursday evening. The rooms were handsomely decorated with autumn flowers and presented a very cheerful appearance. The principal amusement of the evening was a musical contest in which Miss Beaver received the prize. A complimentary prize was also awarded to Miss Finneran. The musical numbers were a piano solo by Miss Finneran, a vocal solo by Miss Sonnickson and a duet on stringed instruments by Misses Sonnickson and Beaver. Taken altogether, the affair was one of the pleasantest of its kind of the season and the young ladies will appreciate another invitation from Miss Kaiser.

Mrs. W. M. Barber, 153 Granite street, entertained the Embroidery Club and a number of other ladies Friday afternoon in honor of her friend, Mrs. Lulu B. Carr, who recently arrived in the city from Greensboro, N. C., to make her future home, and Miss Evelyn Smith of Chicago, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. O. L. Young. The home was made bright with autumn flowers and potted plants and the afternoon was spent with embroidery and conversation. Light refreshments were served and a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by the following guests: Mrs. Lulu B. Carr, Mrs. O. L. Young, Mrs. R. W. Leonard, Mrs. L. G. Johnson, Mrs. A. W. Storey, Mrs. C. J. Gallivan, Mrs. B. W. Talcott, Miss Evelyn Smith and Miss Winifred Watson.

Virgil Hawley was the "victim" of a very pleasant surprise Saturday evening, that being his sixteenth birthday. The guests came in ghostly attire, having first gathered at the East Side Inn. The decorations of the affair were ivy and black cats, yellow and black being the color scheme. Virgil was made to believe that the party was for his sister, Miss Maude Hawley, and when the guests arrived he thought for some time that they were her friends instead of his schoolmates. Miss Dorothy Lennart and Kenneth Lilly won the prizes in the "forest" guessing game. The guests were Lena Smith, Margaret Hodgson, Helen Hodgson, Marian Gregg, Helen Dickerson, Nellie Peachey, Verda Wise, Dorothy Lennart, Mary Weisenburger, Ella Dews, Sumner Parker, Fred Schuerman, Sam Koehler, Lawson Riley, Howard Dunlap, Jack Decker, Leith Abbott, Merton Lowry and Kenneth Lilly. Light refreshments were served.

The freshman reception to the sophomore class at the Ashland high school, which was held in the high school gymnasium on Friday evening, was one of the pleasantest social affairs of the school year. About 70 members of the two classes gathered that evening, chaperoned by Professor Coen and Miss Merrill of the faculty, and spent several very happy hours playing games and in conversation. Refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, salad, olives, jello with whipped cream and cake. The refreshments were in charge of a committee of which Florence Allen was chairman, assisted by Ella Davis, Kenneth Lilly, Donald Rolph, Sam Koehler and Jack Decker. The special entertainment of the evening was in the hands of a committee consisting of Kenneth Lilly, George Phipps, Mary Glover, Margaret Hodgson and Florence Allen. Miss Marian Gregg was general chairman in charge of both committees and all members did themselves credit in the affair.

Hover-Zimmerman.
The marriage of Miss Pearl Louisa Hover and Charles Zimmerman occurred at the residence of Mrs. W. W. Allen, 141 North Fir street, Medford, on Wednesday, October 16, 1912, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated, a unique feature being a floral heart serving as an altar, and composed of evergreen boughs, the bride and groom standing in the center of the heart. The bride was dressed in a cream messaline silk with veil, and the groom in blue serge. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. D. D. Boyle, pastor of the Christian church of Medford, a bountiful dinner was served and amid the good wishes of their many friends the happy couple left for a wedding trip to California.

Pedersen's orchestra will furnish the music.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Perozzi and Mr. and Mrs. William Myers entertained Mrs. May Greer of Hillsboro, Ore., state president of the Rebekahs, Sunday afternoon by an automobile ride to her birthplace, the old Dan Walker place on Neil creek. Mrs. Greer, formerly Miss Hyatt, was also a student in the old academy under Professor Skidmore.

AGAINST HIGH LIVING.

Spokane Mayor Waging a Novel Fight.

Mayor William J. Hindley of Spokane has taken the warpath against the ancient enemy, high cost of living. His fight promises to be a novel one. The first investigation will be into the cost of beef. In the presence of the mayor and special committee a beef will be cut up, weighed, invoiced and priced per pound for various cuts and parts, according to the present scale of retail prices. Two of the veterinarians of the Spokane health department will be present to check the weights and cuts and to render advice. By this means the mayor, who is acting on the request of retailers, who claim they are not to blame for the high living cost, hopes to be able to determine just what class is responsible. Mayor Hindley has not intimated to what other fields his probe of the national question will extend.
